This event will be held at Leidy Park, beginning July 1, 2006, and continuing until there is only one contestant left, as long as two weeks. Vendors are not being scheduled for last weekend, however, vendors who have paid for the entire time and who want to set up if the contest runs that long are welcome.

*Liability Waiver: I agree to waive all liability against Dogs Deserve Better and Leidy Park during this event. I agree to take full responsibility for my person and my merchandise. I will not hold Dogs Deserve Better or Leidy Park responsible for any damage or injury. I agree that the description is a true representation of items to be sold. I understand that payment must accompany this application, and there are no refunds once accepted. I understand that this event is held rain or shine. I agree to leash all dogs, if bringing them, and they must have a current rabies shot and be spayed/neutered. I understand that there will be no meat served by any vendor at this event. If any vendor attempts to sell meat, they will be immediately dismissed from the event. All vegetarian options are accepted.
